ROLE PLAY

Provide the students real world scenarios to help student explore, experiment, investigate and develop skills.

Event: Role Play

Theme: "ORTHODONTICS BY ORTHODONTIST"

(Awareness programme on Invisalign Treatment by orthodontist).

Year: Postgraduates of orthodontics and Interns

Batch: 2021-2024 pg batch.

Date: 12/10/2022 Time: 03:00 Pm

Coordinator: Dr. Safiya Sana, Dr Asma Fatima, Objective:

To introduce alternative method of teaching-learning method to gain knowledge by participation.

Report: In this event participating postgraduate students and interns selected a topic 'Orthodontics by Orthodontist' to enact a role play. The main aim of this role play act to create a public awareness of the negative impact of do it yourself (DIY) orthodontic care can have on both long-term dental health and self-esteem. Which is being promoted by celebrities on social media in the form of Toothsi misleading the common people. The role play was duration of 15 min. where all the students were contributed by playing different characters in the play enacted by using available props at the vicinity. The staff coordinated the whole play and concluded the event.

EFFECT OF MMPS ON DIAGNOSTIC SKILLS

Table 3: The effect of dental students' learning styles on diagnostic skill improvement via an MMP.

Learning style	Activist	Reflective	Sensing	Intuitive	Visual	Verbal	Sequential	Global
Improvement percentage	7.21	6.43	7.91	0	23	6.33	6.00	6.33
N	19	14	47	0	58	3	8	14

Those who identified themselves as moderate or strong visual learners had the greatest score change, with a 23% increase whereas those who identified themselves as moderate or strong sequential learners had the lowest score change at 17% (not statistically significant).

EFFECT OF MNPS ON DIAGNOSTIC SKILLS

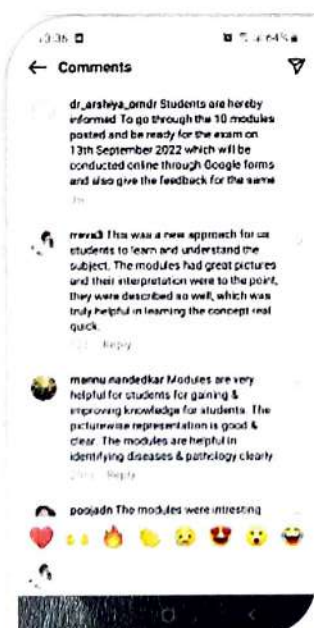

We sorted score changes based on the learning styles of the 76 students who took the learning style survey.

The Improvement percentage was the final test score minus the baseline test score. The improvement percentages were sorted by learning styles (if moderate or strong) from the Felder and Silverman 'index of learning styles' questionnaire
