& Hospital, GULBARGA

Introduction

Al Badar Rural Dental College and Hospital, Kalaburagi believes in philosophy of student-centered teaching and learning process, to accomplish this, several initiatives were introduced among them, one is mid-course improvement strategies.

This scheme aims to understand the effectiveness of teaching learning process and getting the feedback on it, for timely improvement of the course activities and student performance.

PURPOSE

This document is designed to provide guidelines for all clinical and non-clinical departments of BDS and MDS programs for mid-course improvement.

SCOPE

This policy document applies to both students and staff of the dental and allied health sciences departments of Al Badar Rural Dental College and Hospital, Kalaburagi.

OBJECTIVES

- Identify the performance of the students
- Increase the student engagement in the course
- Offering the opportunity to students for further improvement
- Discussing the results and evaluation with the students
- Overall Increasing the performance of students in year-end examination

MID-COURSE EVALUATION FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS.

The curriculum committee drafts a detailed calendar of events for each academic session.

The tentative dates of the internal exams for regular and referred batch are notified.

The portion of the internal exams is as per the lessons covered in each subject. The first internal exam is scheduled within first 3 months of the academic session. The second internal exam is scheduled within six months of the academic session.

Time period is given to each department to check the papers and display the marks on the notice board within 2 weeks of the exam conducted.

Students are informed to go through the corrected papers and the marks list. Students can approach the respective staff for any clarification, corrections in their answer sheets.

The students who did not attend either of the internal examinations or have scored less marks are categorized. These students are scheduled for mid-course examination. Extra focus is given to these students to improve their score.

Departments provide additional leaning opportunities like extra classes, chair side discussions and supervised learning for these students.

The mid-course examination timetable is given after second internal and is informed well before to the students. The portion of mid-course examination is same as that for first and second internal examination. Mid-course examination is conducted in all departments as per the timetable.

A different question paper of the allotted portion is set up for the students. The answer sheets are checked and shown to the students within a week for any clarification. Midcourse exam helps the students to improve their scores and internal marks.

MID-COURSE EVALUATION FOR POST GRADUATE STUDENTS.

Continuous evaluation is the motto for post graduate students. The students are evaluated regularly on basis of

- Seminars
- Journal clubs
- Case presentations
- Pedagogy
- Inter-disciplinary case discussions.

Check lists are provided to the staff for each postgraduate students to evaluate their academic activity.

The post graduate students are scheduled for multiple mock exams before the final university exams. These exams help the students to write detailed answers in a stipulated time. The students with less scores are scheduled for discussions and personalized lesson planning. Students are provided with notes, PowerPoint presentations to help them prepare well for the exams.

Repeated viva and pedagogy are conducted to clear their basic concepts and lessons. The post graduate students are well prepared for the final university examinations.
