

Al-Badar Educational & Charitable Trust's
AL-BADAR RURAL DENTAL COLLEGE & HOSPITAL, KALABURAGI

Affiliated to Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences Bangalore &
Recognized by Dental Council of India (New Delhi)

4.3.2 Total number of textbooks, reference volumes, journals, collection of rare books, manuscripts, digitalized traditional manuscripts, Discipline-specific learning resources from ancient Indian languages, special reports or any other knowledge resource for library enrichment

Response:

The college library acts as an apex knowledge resource centre for all the departments. However, each of them has its own independent specialized libraries. It is envisaged that this library will continue to be a strong facilitator in knowledge creation and dissemination.

The Library serves as a source for an efficient, serious and scholarly place that supports and enables quality improvements in academic and institutional performance. The library procures a comprehensive range of textbooks, journals, digital databases, thesis. There are collections of diverse materials, to support teaching, learning and research. It also provides entertainment and healthy leisure to the students and faculty by providing different newspapers..

The library is updated annually for books and journals based on the curriculum and annual budget. The book's cover all dental specialties and basic medical sciences. Currently there are 3176 books.

The journals cover all dental and allied specialties constituting 35 print journals and 40 e-journals for article reference and learning.

The library is also subscribed to 2 discipline specific learning resource namely, HELINET and Medknow online library to journal articles. The E-consortium database is made available on annual subscription from the Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Science, Karnataka for dental, medical and allied health sciences. Access to the e-resources can be done through e-Consortium of the University website from the library.
